Jim Phillips on Antebellum Alabama

If you are a Southern History buff, you're in for a treat at today's Brown Bag program! Our speaker today is local historian Jim Phillips! He will present a program on Alabama before the Civil War. Mr. Phillips will bring a portable museum with him consisting of artifacts and relics from Antebellum and Civil War Alabama. Video footage of old Alabama plantations will also be shown.

Wed. February 8th
12:30-1:30

The Celts

Today's Brown Bag film will examine the final settlements of the Celts in Scotland, England and Ireland. We'll see the conflicting forces that drove the Celts to these lands and find out what happened there to further shape the identities of the Celtic peoples.

There are only two Brown Bag programs this month. The Friends of the Emmet O'Neal Library are working hard to prepare the meeting room for the Annual Book Sale February 24th-26th. All library donors giving $25 or more to the Library will receive invitations to the private Book Sale Preview Party on Thursday, February 23rd, 6 p.m.-8:30 p.m. The Book Sale opens to the public February 24th and 25th from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and February 26th from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. We'll see you there!
